HIGGS: Before we begin the formal question and answer statement, I am going to show you a document known as a Sworn Affidavit. According to Illinois law (735 ILCS 5 / 1-109), any person who files a false complaint may be subject to criminal charges or a civil suit. Do you understand this?

[REDACTED] Yes

Initials [REDACTED]

HIGGS: On 24 April 2012, between the hours of 2000 -2200 hours, were you working at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Yes

HIGGS: Where is [REDACTED] located?
[REDACTED]

HIGGS: What type of work were you doing at the hospital on 24 April 2012?
[REDACTED] I was a Public Safety Officer at [REDACTED]

HIGGS: Were you wearing a uniform?
[REDACTED] Yes, I was wearing a white Oxford shirt, black blazer, khaki pants, and black shoes. I had my employee ID attached to my blazer.

HIGGS: While you working at [REDACTED] on 24 April 2012 did anything unusual occur?
[REDACTED] Yes. I was vacuuming in the Hospital Ambulatory Care Department when 5 civilian clothed Chicago Police Officers entered the Ambulatory Care Department and began pointing at me. I finished vacuuming and left the department and I took over the main hospital lobby front desk. At approximately 10:20 pm the five officers had exited the Ambulatory Care Department, they then stopped. A Caucasian officer then looked at me and extended his left arm and pointed it at me. Four of the officers grabbed the officer that pointed at me and persuaded him to leave the hospitals main lobby.

HIGGS: Could you hear the officers talking to each other? If, so describe what you heard.
[REDACTED] Yes. I heard the officers urging the other officer who was acting unethically to leave the main lobby.

HIGGS: Do you know why the police officers were at the hospital?
[REDACTED] There was a Latin American Police Officer that was being seen at the Ambulatory Care Department and the other officers were accompanying him there. At approximately 8 to 10 pm, officers regularly come in and take a break or sit in the Ambulatory Care Department and watch television. When the Latin American Police Officer left the hospital, the other officers left with him.

HIGGS: What did you say to the unknown officer during the incident?
[REDACTED] Nothing

Initials [REDACTED]

HIGGS: Is there a reason why the unknown officer pointed his finger at you?
[REDACTED] Ever since I got out of the military I received some type of harassment. My military service is a very big and sensitive issue and ever since I got out of the Marine Corps I have been harassed. I was being harassed at my place of employment by my supervisor and my coworkers. They call it reprisals. They are trying to get even, or get back at me, because I did what I had to do. It's been like this for 9 or 10 years. Once I got out I had a lot of enemies, people try to provoke me. Yesterday I had to leave my job because this stuff is going on. I wished I had never enlisted if I had known that this is the way it would go.

HIGGS: Did this unknown officer who pointed his finger at you serve with you in the Marines?
[REDACTED] I don't know. I never saw those officers before and after the officers left that night they never returned.

HIGGS: Did you have any interaction with this unknown officer in the past?
[REDACTED] No never saw this officer before.

HIGGS: Please describe the unknown officer?
[REDACTED] He was Caucasian, 200 to 220 lbs. 5'9 or 5'10, and balding. He had very short hair. Wearing a grey sweat shirt and stoned washed blue jeans and white gym shoes.

HIGGS: Did he show you a badge or identification?
[REDACTED] I saw his badge on his belt when I reviewed the camera footage. It was a silver badge.

HIGGS: Did you see any police vehicles?
[REDACTED] A gray SUV and Chicago Police Department SUV.

HIGGS: Do you have the license plate numbers to any of these vehicles?
[REDACTED] No I didn't get the license plate numbers.

HIGGS: Who did you report this incident to?
[REDACTED] Mr. [REDACTED] Director of Public Safety.

HIGGS: Did anyone witness the incident?
[REDACTED] My co-worker, Public Safety Officer

HIGGS: Would you be willing to be contacted to view photographs and will you be able to identify the unknown officer if necessary?
[REDACTED] I am willing to return and should be able to identify him.

HIGGS: Is everything you told me in this statement the truth to the best of your knowledge?
[REDACTED] Yes

HIGGS: Is there anything relative to this incident that you wish to add to this statement?
[REDACTED] No

HIGGS: I will briefly summarize your allegations on the Sworn Affidavit. Does this summary accurately reflect your complaint?
[REDACTED] Yes

HIGGS: Do you have anything you wish to add or clarify?
[REDACTED] No

HIGGS: After reviewing the questions asked and the responses given by you, and upon reading the summary of your allegations, are you prepared to sign the Sworn Affidavit attesting to the truthfulness of your complaint?
[REDACTED] Yes

HIGGS: After reading this statement consisting of 4 pages and finding it to accurately contain the questions asked and the responses you have given, will you sign it?
[REDACTED] Yes.

Statement concluded at 1230 hours.

SUBJECT: Interview of Witness [REDACTED]

On 8 May 2012 at approximately 1310 hours, the reporting investigator (R/I) contacted the Director of Public Safety at Thorek Hospital, Mr. [REDACTED] Mr. [REDACTED] related the following not verbatim. On 24 April 2012, the complainant and Security Officer [REDACTED] reported that a Chicago Police Officer had pointed a finger at him and that the officer did so to intimidate Mr. [REDACTED] After interviewing Mr. [REDACTED] and reviewing the hospital security tapes, Mr. [REDACTED] stated that there was no basis for the complaint. The tape clearly shows that the officers were having a conversation and one officer made a pointing gesture, but not in the direction of Mr. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] continued to explain that none of the officers in the video did anything wrong, did not act inappropriately, and there is no basis for the complaint. Mr. [REDACTED] also informed Mr. [REDACTED] that the officers did nothing wrong and there was no basis for an incident report or a complaint. However, Mr. [REDACTED] pressed the issue stating that the officers were there to intimidate him.

Mr. [REDACTED] explained that that Mr. [REDACTED] has worked for the company for three weeks and appears to suffer from a psychological problem. On 7 May 2012, Mr. [REDACTED] got into a verbal altercation with an employee of the hospital, became enraged and threw a two-way radio against the floor. Subsequently Mr. [REDACTED] was terminated from his employment. Mr. [REDACTED] pointed out that Mr. [REDACTED] is argumentative and abrasive and lacks the ability to handle normal situations.

On 1 May 2012, Reporting Investigator (R/I) was assigned CL # 1053579. R/I reviewed the initiation report submitted by Sergeant SAMPSON Star # 2620, Unit 020, which set out the allegation. On 8 May 2012, R/I interviewed the complainant Mr. [REDACTED] at the Bureau of Internal Affairs regarding the allegation. A signed Sworn Affidavit was obtained from Mr. [REDACTED] at this time.

During the interview on 8 May 2012, Mr. [REDACTED] related not verbatim that while working as a Public Safety Officer at [REDACTED] on 24 April 2012, at approximately 2230 hours, several unknown plainclothes officers were exiting the Ambulatory Care Department which is located near the lobby. The complainant alleges that it was at this time that one of the officers stopped and pointed his finger toward him from 10 feet away. No words were exchanged between the complainant and the unknown officer during the incident. The complainant took this act as harassment and believes that this incident is part of years of reprisals for his discharge from the Marine Corp approximately 10 years ago. Although the complainant does not know the officer or has ever seen him in the past, he believes that they are trying to get even with him for an incident stemming from the military. The complainant informed the R/I that on 7 May 2012 he quit his job at [REDACTED] due to this type of harassment from his supervisor and co-workers. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he made a lot of enemies by leaving the Marine Corps, and since then people try to provoke him as part of these reprisals. During the interview, Mr. [REDACTED] had identified the [REDACTED] Director of Public Safety, Mr. [REDACTED] as a witness who he had reported this incident to.

On 8 May 2012, R/I contacted witness Mr. [REDACTED] and learned that on 24 April 2012, Mr. [REDACTED] had reported this incident to him. After speaking with his employee and reviewing the security camera footage, he told Mr. [REDACTED] that there were no grounds for an incident report or a complaint. The witness further stated that the officers did not point at Mr. [REDACTED] and were engaged in a conversation amongst them. Mr. [REDACTED] further stated that the officers did nothing wrong, did not act inappropriately, and there is no basis for this complaint. Mr. [REDACTED] pointed out that the complainant appears to suffer from a psychological problem. On 7 May 2012, after three weeks of employment, Mr. [REDACTED] was fired from his Public Safety Position at [REDACTED] for conduct unbecoming a Public Safety Officer. Mr. [REDACTED] was involved in an altercation with a fellow employee, became enraged and threw a portable radio against the floor. Mr. [REDACTED] further related that Mr. [REDACTED] is argumentative, abrasive, and lacks the ability to handle normal situations.

Based on the information revealed in this investigation; the statements of the witness and complainant. The investigator finds no factual basis for the allegation. The complainant is not credible and the witness refutes the allegation in defense of the unknown officer. Additionally, the complainant was unable to identify an accused in the incident. The investigator recommends that the investigation be closed with a finding of Unfounded.
